

Shannon Solomon Assistant Vice President & Workplace Program Leader | Fifth Third Bank

Shannon is an accomplished professional with diversified experience in process and performance improvement, project management, needs analysis, systems analysis and implementation, business communications, facilitation, consulting, instructional design, sales training, employee communications, and financial services industry.

She has excellent strategic thinking, communications and program management skills with ability to contribute value in a team or client-based environment.