

IFMA™

International Facility Management Association

Empowering Facility Professionals Worldwide

This document contains active links!

FM CAREER PATH

FM Education from IFMA

IFMA offers professional development opportunities for facility management personnel at all stages of their careers, from those considering entry into the profession through those seasoned facility managers who have achieved the CFM – and beyond, through continuing education and conference sessions on cutting-edge topics and issues.

Where are you in your FM career?

Competency Areas

Communication | Emergency Preparedness & Business Continuity
Environmental Stewardship & Sustainability | Finance & Business | Human Factors
Leadership & Strategy | Operations & Maintenance | Project Management
Quality | Real Estate & Property Management | Technology

Related Background and Experience

Architecture | Business Admin | Construction | Engineering | Finance
Interior Design | Maintenance | Manufacturing | Marketing | Office Services
Operations | Public Relations | Purchasing | Quality Control | Real Estate
Research | Service Provider | Technology

Experience Level

Intro to FM

Foundation

Specialist
Executive
Leader
Expert

Essentials of FM

Entry-level training to meet the educational needs of emerging facility management professionals.

fmp

Earn the must-have credential in facility management and gain in-depth knowledge of core FM topics.

sfp

Earn recognition as a leader in the development of sustainability strategies and impact your triple bottom line.

CFM

Earn the most prestigious global certification in facility management for experienced FM leaders.

Professional Development

Not sure what level of training to consider? Visit our Credential Compass.